

A Golden Chance For $3.00

All the superior advantages of Hess Shoes—the style, the fit, the durability that so many have learned about since our coming, are yours for about HALF PRICE, if you come now.

Surely $3 is a small price for the best shoe in the world, and Hess shoes are unreservedly the very best, yet we've reduced our entire stock of Russia shoes, both high and low quarters, regular $7, $6, and $5 shoes, to $3. There's a reason for this; you'll discover it when you're in need of autumn shoes, for no man buys any other after once he's worn the Peerless Hess Shoe. In the mean time $3 does the work of $5, $6, and $7.

Manager Irwin, of the Washington club, and Manager Hanlon, of the Brooklyn team, yesterday completed a deal whereby Catcher Jim McGuire goes to Brooklyn and First Baseman Dan McGann and Catcher Alex. Smith become members of the local team. For some time past Hanlon has been looking with longing eyes in McGuire's direction, but until yesterday Messrs. Irwin and Wagner refused to consider any proposition which meant "Old Reliable's" departure from this city. For nine years McGuire has been the mainstay of the Senators behind the bat, and his services were thought indispensable until Kirtland was signed by Manager Irwin.

A more popular ball player than McGuire never wore a Washington uniform. He was always willing and anxious to work, and he was at his best when kept constantly in the game. He came to this city in 1891, when Washington was a member of the old American Association, and here he has remained through the changing years of baseball. By his reliable work, steady habits, and accommodating disposition he has always been a favorite with the public, his associates on the team, and his employers. In 1896 he caught 126 consecutive games, a record that has never been equaled. His departure from this city marks the passing of the last of the old guard. The fans regret to see him go, and their wishes go with him.

First Baseman McGann, who figured in the Reddy-Boyle deal before the beginning of last season, comes back to Washington in exchange for McGuire. Last year was McGann's first season in the major league, yet he has already made a national reputation. He is a hard hitter, a fast fielder, and an excellent base runner. His record with the Baltimore club has been a splendid one. He played in 145 games, made 97 runs, reached first base 150 times, made 8 sacrifice hits, stole 34 bases, and had a batting average of .284. His fielding record was also a good one. In 145 games he made 1,406 put outs, and 65 assists, with an average of .984, standing fourth in the list of first basemen. He should prove a good man for the local team.

Catcher Smith played in 48 games with Brooklyn last season, and had a batting average of .360. He is an active young player, energetic and ambitious, and will prove a valuable acquisition to the team. The game with Cincinnati, which was postponed on account of the rain, was scheduled for yesterday afternoon, but the afternoon the Colonels will be the opponents of the Senators at National Park. Mercer and Kirtland will be the battery for the Senators, and McGann will cover first base.

THREE STRAIGHT DEFEATS.

Cleveland Again Goes Down Before the Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, July 13.—Philadelphia made three straight over Cleveland this afternoon. The visitors could make no headway against Fraser, and were almost shut out. The game was called by Umpire Gaffney on account of darkness. Attendance, 2,965. The score:

Philadelphia	R.	B.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Philadelphia	1	12	0	0	2	0
Cleveland	0	1	1	0	0	0

GOSSIP OF THE DIAMOND.

News Notes of the National Game and Its Participants.

With the addition of the hard-hitting McGann, the Senators are able to acquire a reputation as "sluggers." Irwin has no use for a ball player who cannot hit the ball.

Wagner, of the Colonels, played a wonderful game at Baltimore on Wednesday. He made two runs, four hits, four put outs, and four assists. One of his hits was a two-bagger. His work contributed materially to the victory.

The Washington club has arranged to play some exhibition games on its next Western trip. Games will be played at Johnstown July 22 and 24.

The McGuire-McGann deal was the talk of the fans last night. The trade is regarded as beneficial to both clubs. McGann will greatly strengthen Washington's infield, and his speed will improve the batting average of the club.

McGuire's name will seem out of place in the Brooklyn club's batting order. He has served the Washington club long and faithfully, and he has the best wishes of every fan who ever witnessed his work.

The Senators have at last secured a left-handed pitcher, a commodity for which Manager Irwin has been seeking for some time. If he is as good as he is reported to be, the Senatorial twirling staff will be as strong as any in the League.

Jennings makes numerous errors as shortstop, but his value to a ball club cannot be reckoned by his batting or fielding average. Since his return to his old position, the Senators have won a big majority of their games.

Miller is the only player of the Reds who seems to take no interest in his work or in all that is going on in the clubhouse. He is occasionally seen back of third or first base, but the rest of the players are like so many sticks of wood.

Another fishing expedition will be in order for Jack Taylor unless he shows better form than he displayed Wednesday. He is now in better condition than when he was suspended, but there is still room for improvement.

California Hughes is getting knocked out of the box with a regularity that has become monotonous to both him and Manager Hanson. Dunn is now the mainstay of the Superbas on the club.

CHICAGO BEATS BOSTON.

Lewis Proves a Mark for the Windy City Batters.

Boston, July 13.—The Chicago had an easy time with the Champions today and won by great batting. Lewis proved a mark. Garvin, Chicago's new pitcher, was a puzzle to Boston, except in the seventh, when he was batted for four runs. The score:

Boston	R.	B.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Chicago	3	0	0	0	0	0

Two-base hits—Donahue, Merton. Three-base hits—Sullivan, Lamm, Merton. Green. Two-base hits—Sullivan, Lamm, Merton. Green. Two-base hits—Sullivan, Lamm, Merton. Green.

SEYMOUR HAS THE SULK.
The New York Pitcher Assists the Pirates to Victory.

New York, July 13.—Seymour sulked today and did enough damage to hand the victory over to Pittsburgh. He, however, was not the only player at fault, Gleason and Gettig being of considerable assistance to the visitors. The score:

Pittsburgh	R.	B.	P.	O.	A.	E.
New York	0	1	0	0	0	0

His Way of Putting It.
(From the Chicago News.)
Nice little boys are always the subject of friendly interest, but no one knows what kind of an answer to expect from them when questioned.

"You are a nice little boy," said a kindly old gentleman to a bright youngster of five. "Have you any little brothers?"
"No," replied the boy. "My father short on brothers, but I've got sisters to burn."
